OUR COMMUNITY

The name Toodyay is derived from the Noongar word Dudja, meaning mist.

Our beautiful misty mornings can be observed during the season of Makuru (June to July).

The Town of Toodyay was founded in 1839 and boasts magnificent examples of Western Australia's natural and cultural heritage.

Just 45 minutes west of Midland, this idyllic location is a charismatic alternative for those wanting to get away from the daily hustle and bustle of everyday city life.

Our community is well known for its well-preserved history. Sites such the Newcastle Goal Museum and Connor's Mill offer brilliant examples of artifacts and texts preserved by dedicated volunteers of the Toodyay Historical Society. Moondyne Joe and Rica Erickson are just a few of the prominent Toodyay figures you can learn about.

Housing many endemic species, many of the plant and animal life found in Toodyay and surrounding regions are found nowhere else in Australia or the world. En route to the Shire is the Avon Valley National Park including its gorgeous trails within the hills encompassing the region. More of our natural attraction include the flowing Avon River, Duidgee Park and the scenic Pelham Reserve.

Residents and visitors alike are also spoiled with a variety of local businesses offering exceptional services. Come take a visit to the eateries for delicious handmade goods or take a stroll through our town center to discover artisanal products created by our very own.
