- c) protect and maintain, wherever reasonable, the existing landscape character and general amenity of the Shire by the appropriate location and operation of extractive industries;
- d) control and minimise the operational impacts of extractive industry including dust, noise, spread of weed/dieback, vibration, drainage and land clearing on neighbouring land uses by the application of development standards, conditions of approval and operational requirements;
- e) ensure that extractive industry does not have an unacceptable impact on the environmental attributes of an area and, to the greatest extent possible, environmental attributes are improved or maintained during and at completion of the extractive industry operations; and
- f) encourage extractive industries in areas of the Shire where the road infrastructure is compatible with the expected road usage resulting from the land use, or the road network can be upgraded by the proponent to meet appropriate standards prior to the use commencing

5 MINUTE FIRE CHAT

President Pen - This month I wish to talk about budgets and rates. These can be quite contentious issues for Council and residents so I thought it might be useful to explain how budgets and rates are set by local governments.

Local government must adopt a budget for each financial year commencing 1 July by no later than 31 August. The budget is based on detailed estimates of expenditure and income (other than rates). The deficiency between estimated expenditure and estimated income (other than rates) is the amount required to be raised by rates. The other sources of income which are available to a local government include fees and charges, borrowings and government grants.

Although the budget is, to a large extent, based on forward planning documents such as the Community Strategic Plan, the Corporate Business Plan and the Long Term Financial Plan, there may be issues and demands which require some modifications when it comes to setting the budget.

In forming a budget, a local government needs to be aware of both domestic and national economic conditions such as CPI, increases in local government costs, increases in wages and general economic conditions.

The community will judge a local government's performance relative to economic conditions in the broader community for example, where a significant portion of the community feels under financial pressure. Acknowledgement of this, even in some small way, can provide a community with greater confidence in the decisions made by a local government in setting its budget and thereby earn greater support for those decisions.

Shire President Cr Manning

The objective of the budget process is to balance all the competing needs through a rating system that will maintain the integrity and sustainability of the local government and allow for the renewal or replacement of infrastructure and assets when this becomes necessary.

In the budget process, it is the responsibility of the Council to balance the budget or, at least, reduce the deficiency to an acceptable level. This is achieved by cutting costs, by deleting or reducing services and/or by increasing rates and charges.

The amount to be raised by rates must not be more than 110% nor less than 90% of the deficiency between the budgeted expenses and the budgeted revenue (other than rates) so there is some flexibility given to local governments in setting the rates.

Rating is a system of taxation based on the value of property as determined by the Valuer General. In general, land in or near townsites (including most rural residential blocks) is valued at its gross rental value which is the gross annual rental that the land might reasonably be expected to realise if let on a tenancy from year to year. Land outside a townsite is generally valued at its unimproved value which is the capital amount which the land might reasonably be expected to realise on sale disregarding improvements.

Local governments have the option of imposing differential rates on properties based on such characteristics as zoning or use. The theory behind this is that the cost of providing services to properties and its occupiers can vary depending on the use of the property or characteristics. Differential rates can result in a more equitable sharing of the rates burden between different land uses. If a local government proposes to set differential rates it must advertise them and take any public submissions into account before setting them. A local government may also set a minimum amount of rates to be paid on each property.

Fees and charges can be imposed for such services as the use of local government property, providing information and receiving and granting various approvals. These fees and charges are determined and imposed each year when the annual budget is adopted.

Another major source of revenue apart from rates is various State and Commonwealth government grants eg for roads and recreation facilities. Financial assistance grants are recommended by the WA Grants Commission. General purpose grants by the Commonwealth are determined in accordance with national principles including that, regardless of location, a local government shall be given the financial resources to provide necessary services to their community. However, the trend over recent years has been for these grants to be maintained at the same level or even decreased thus putting more pressure on local governments to fund their operations from their own resources, mainly rates.

A local government must between 1 January and 31 March carry out a review of its budget as at 31 December. This review must be considered by Council which has to decide whether to adopt the review or any recommendations made in the review.

For Toodyay, Council will consider the review of this year's budget at its March Ordinary Council Meeting to see how the Shire is tracking financially.

A Shout out to our fantastic Fire Veggies!

We all know how good our volunteer fire fighters are, but it is always still great to receive accolades from the community, so here is an extract from a letter received recently from a resident

"The efforts of the Volunteer Fire Brigade were very much appreciated and undoubtedly saved what could have been catastrophic damage to our property and those of our neighbours."

We have been residents of the Shire of Toodyay for over 30 years and as each fire season approaches, we take comfort that the rural fire service volunteers are well skilled, dedicated and highly effective.

Please pass on our sincere thanks to those volunteers who attended the fire on 8 and 9 January"

International Women's Day 8 March 2020

International Women's Day is held on 8 March each year, with events and activities taking place across the globe. It celebrates the social, economic, cultural and political achievements of women. It also marks a call to action for accelerating gender equality to create a world where women and girls everywhere have equal rights and opportunities.

International Women's Day in Western Australia is an opportunity to demonstrate our commitment to gender equality and to celebrate the contributions women make to our communities.

Statistics for Western Australian women

- 50% of Western Australians are women and girls.
- WA has the highest gender pay gap in Australia at 21.8% compared to 14% across Australia.
- 56% of university graduates are women.
- On average, women's superannuation balances are approximately 60% of men's.
- 68% of adults aged 18+ accessing homelessness services in WA are women.
- Women perform around 75% of all unpaid work, including caring for children and others, housework and administration and volunteering.
- 30% of ASX 200 Board members are women.
- 31.6% of WA Members of Parliament are women.

We need to join forces across generations to make Western Australia a place where every girl has the opportunity to fulfil her potential.

2020 marks a hundred years since women in Western Australia were able to run for parliament but women remain underrepresented.

International Women's Day is a time to acknowledge women's achievements across the generations and to highlight the work that still needs to be done.

Progress towards equality has been too slow, the time for action is now.

The first step to achieving gender equality is understanding the issues and the role you can play – visit www.communities.wa.gov.au/IWD.

This International Women's Day, we are calling on women and men to share their vision for an equal future and use the hashtag #GenerationEquality.

ROAD VERGES ARE RESERVES

by Greg Warburton Reserves Management Officer

Land holders are reminded that road verges are Reserves that belong to the Local Government or Main Roads and are not the property of the adjoining landholder.

There has been a disturbingly high number of incidents within the Shire of late whereby property owners have cleared or even set fire to road verges. The photograph shows a case whereby a land holder cleared the verge of high quality and diverse native vegetation without seeking permission or even contacting the Shire prior.

This type of activity is illegal as ALL native vegetation in WA is protected under Legislation and prosecution can result.

Would you go onto your neighbour's property and start clearing their bushland without them knowing?

The Shire and Main Roads are allowed to remove regrowth within the maintenance zone of the road verge but unless the Department of Water and Environmental regulation (DWER) has issued an appropriate licence further clearing of the road reserve is strictly not permitted.

The Shire will also prune road verge vegetation for line of sight and road safety concerns.

The Shire supports land holders who wish to manage weeds such as wild oats on the road verge in order to reduce fire risk and in some cases will issue a permit to burn a section of road verge.

Land holders are also allowed to clear 1.5 metres into the road reserve to install and maintain a fence line. This then creates a 3 metre wide cleared zone which added to the 3 metre width of the property fire break will provide a six metre and a very effective break which is perfectly legal.

The Toodyay Shire and community value their road verges as they are a tourism and ecological asset featuring wildflower displays and providing precious habitat and corridors for wildlife. Within the Shire we have nine registered Flora Roads which in Spring highlight the extraordinary botanical diversity of the this area, conveniently represented along the roadsides.

Please contact the Shire of Toodyay or submit a request for works if you have concerns about road verges.

Toodyay Music Fest 2020

The Toodyay Music Fest working group, have been hard at work behind the scenes and have managed to secure enough funds to give the 2020 Toodyay Music Festival on Saturday, March 28 2020 a big green light! We are very excited to be headlining superstar James Blundell, as well as a host of other brilliant performers.

We have attracted a full and dynamic line up of musical acts who are excited to join us on the day across three stages and five busking stations, bringing music into the streetscape of Toodyay for a free, fun filled day of entertainment. Unfortunately, unless we are able to attract more funds in the next couple of weeks, we will not be able to provide the full three stage event we have planned, and will have to turn some performers away.

One or two larger donors from previous years are back in 2020 to support the Music Fest, but due to their funding constraints, are not able to match their previous donations. We are still waiting for responses from other grant applications and may not know how many of those applications have been successful – or how much we are granted - until within a week or two of the festival's date, as happened in 2019. However, for this year we have already locally raised significantly more funds than ever before. This, in part, is thanks to the generosity of Toodyay people and also the fantastic generosity of WA Opera's Emma Petteimerides and of the Freeze Frame Opera Company, who performed in a fundraising event in the Memorial Hall to raise funds last September.

So we need your help to make this little festival bigger and better than ever. We are actively pursuing further funds from grants and sponsorships but are hoping the local community will consider donating to our Go Fund Me page, as well as sharing this link among your networks gf.me/u/xfc5uy. Our Facebook page www.facebook.com/toodyaymusicfest/ will keep you up to date with our plans, as well as introducing you to some of our performers ahead of time, so jump on there and give us a like!

Every little bit counts and all offers of funds, talents and ideas are welcome! Make sure you pop the 2020 Toodyay Music Festival on Saturday, March 28 into your diary and let's get ready to rock!

Shire of Toodyay crews are in the final stages with the Lovers Lane project with contractors completing the seal in early February. Minor works such as kerbing, and advisory signage will be completed in the coming weeks. Newcastle Gaol Restoration Project Re-shingling, structural & drainage works

This project is nearing completion. In January the removal of barriers around the front of the gaol gave us a wonderful preview of our restored heritage building, even though work continued inside the museum courtyard.

Since the first lot of scaffolding was delivered and erected on 23 September an extensive program of restoration has been undertaken.

Most comprehensive and obvious has been the removal of the sixty year old roof shingles and their replacement with new sawn West Australian sheoak shingles. This has been a mammoth effort and for quite a few weeks has been undertaken in scorching heat.

In addition the following activities were also carried out:

- ⇒ Repair of the boards the shingles were nailed to
- ⇒ Replacement of some roofing structures such as rafters and hip joints
- ⇒ Installation of a moisture proof membrane under the shingles
- ⇒ Installation of new roof flashing
- ⇒ Repair of stone walls
- ⇒ Pest control spraying
- ⇒ Temporary installation and then removal of scaffolding, both external and internal
- ⇒ Replacement of gutters
- ⇒ Installation of sub-soil drainage around the perimeter walls
- ⇒ Brick paving re-laid along front of gaol to a lower level to allow wall vents to be re-exposed
- ⇒ New drainage installed along garden beds at front of gaol
- ⇒ New downpipes installed externally and inside courtyard

Before we can re-open the building to the public we are looking at ways of cleaning the interior spaces ready for the reinstallation of artefacts from the museum collections.

Bear with us for a few more weeks as we prepare our displays. We can't wait to welcome everyone back.

IS YOUR CAT OR DAY REGISTRATION UPTO DATE?

Over the next coming months rangers will be conducting dog and cat registration checks as per relevant Acts, to assist in this process unregistered dog and cat owners will be given 14 days to comply after rangers have made contact, after this period if no registration has been obtained infringements will apply.

TOODYAY LIBRARY TALK | February 2020

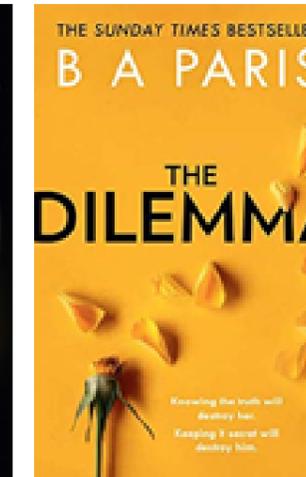

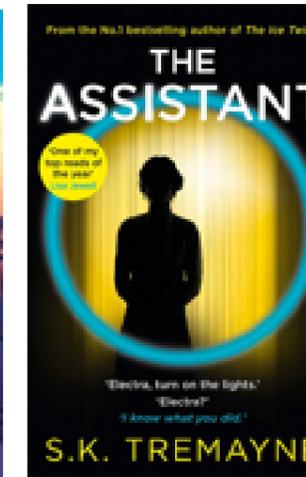

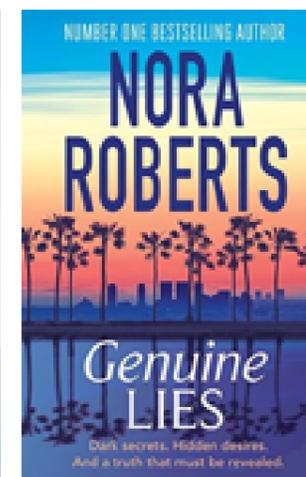

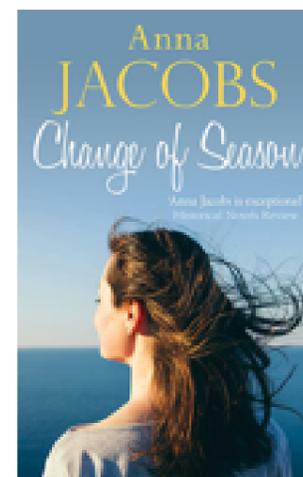

It might be predictable to say 'How can it be February already?', but the question has to be asked! Still, each new month brings with it stacks of new stock here at the library, which is always a cause for celebration. Take a look at some of the best fiction reads that are on our shelves now and available for you to borrow.

Change of Season, Anna Jacobs Left to settle in a foreign country on her own after her husband puts his job first – again – Rosalind is not happy. And as her children, one by one, need help with major life problems, she's never felt lonelier. But with acclaim growing over her artistic abilities and a surprise inheritance now to her name, her confidence begins to grow. Will the new, independent Rosalind remain loyal to her husband as she has before, or will he get more than he bargained for when he returns to the wife he assumed would wait for him?

Genuine Lies, Nora Roberts Eve Benedict is a legend: two Oscars, four ex-husbands and a legion of lovers. She knows every Hollywood scandal, and she's planning to tell all in a no-holds-barred memoir. But the truth can be dangerous, especially in a town built on secrets. Eve's stepson Paul is worried the book will only bring trouble, but he can't argue with Eve's choice of ghostwriter: the talented, beautiful Julia Summers. As Paul and Julia struggle with their feelings, they don't realise they are also tangled in a very dark plot. Eve has one last secret to reveal...and it will put them all in danger.

The Assistant, S.K. Tremayne Newly divorced Jo is delighted to move into her best friend's spare room almost rent-free. The high-tech luxury flat is managed by meticulous home assistant Electra, who takes care of the heating, the lights – and sometimes Jo even turns to her for company. Until one night, when Electra says something that tears Jo's fragile world in two: 'I know what you did.' Jo is horrified. Because in her past she did do something terrible. Something unforgivable. As winter brings London to a standstill, Jo begins to understand that the assistant on the shelf doesn't just want to control her; it wants to destroy her.

The Dilemma, B.A. Paris It's Livia's 40th birthday, and she's having the party of a lifetime to celebrate. Everyone she loves will be there except her daughter Marnie, who's studying abroad. But although Livia loves Marnie, she's secretly glad. She needs to tell her husband Adam something about their daughter but she's waiting until the party is over. Meanwhile, Adam wants everything to be perfect for Livia, so he's arranged for Marnie to come home. Then he hears some terrible news, and needs to tell Livia. But she's so happy – and the guests are about to arrive. How far would you go to give a loved one a few final hours of happiness?

Toodyay Community Citizen of the Year Awards

The Australia Day BBQ Breakfast and Community Citizen of the Year Awards was a great success. From 7am our Councillors and staff prepared and cooked a free hot breakfast for over 400 people throughout the morning, while the Mucky Duck Bush Band entertained and happy kids played on the waterslide. The new venue of the Town Oval was for logistical purposes, including toilet and kitchen facilities, parking and the marquees worked well for shade. Next year we will be able to have the Australia Day celebrations at the new Sport & Recreation Precinct with our lovely new pool facilities and pavilion, How awesome will that be?!!

Thank you to the Hon Darren West MLA for attending our ceremonies and a welcome to four of our newest Australian Citizens. Lastly, a massive congratulations to all of our nominees and winners of the Community Citizen of the Year Awards (all of whom were worthy contenders!)
